
Recommendation Letter

From Matt Hall <matt@hrsoul.com>

Date Mon 10/27/2025 4:22 PM

To CHRISTOPHER HUDSON <christopherahudson@outlook.com>

To whom it may concern:

Christopher Hudson has been a valued strategic partner and repeat speaker for HR Soul Consulting's Tampa Bay events. Over the past few years, he has delivered highly engaging sessions on culture building, managing toxic employees, and his proprietary model, The Cultural Microsphere. Through our partnership, we view Christopher's active engagement with our firm as one of growth and storytelling. His knowledge of human resources is vast, and his particular interest in building great cultures aligns perfectly with our mission at HR Soul Consulting.

Christopher's sessions are consistently well-received for their practicality, humor, and authenticity. He brings both executive-level experience and an educator's mindset, helping HR professionals and business leaders translate complex culture concepts into actionable strategies that drive real organizational change.
